Our plan is to provide Pittsburgh with a bimonthly print issue of the Current, along with updating digital daily. We are currently at just over 200 locations in the city, and are ready to grow! RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment. In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

You Might Lose Your Money

When you buy a certificate of deposit from a bank, the Federal government (through the FDIC) guarantees you will get your money back. Buying a Note is not like that at all. The ability of the Company to make the payments you expect, and ultimately to give you your money back, depends on a number of factors, including many beyond our control.

Limited Operating History

The Company has been operating only since 2018, a limited history for prospective investors to consider.

Competition

There are many other competitors, including university-based publications that do not have to be profitable. The Company competes on the basis of quality, price, product availability, reader appeal, and many other factors. There is no guaranty that Company will be successful in competing against these competitors. Changes in customer preference away from the Company's core business or the inability to compete successfully against the with other competitors could negatively affect the Company's financial performance.

Interest Rate Might Not Adequately Compensate For Risk

Theoretically, the interest rate paid by a company should compensate the creditor for the level of risk the creditor is assuming. There is no certainty that the interest rate on your Note will compensate you adequately for the level of risk.

No Right to Participate in Management

As the owner of a Note, you will not have the right to control the Company in any way or to participate in its management. You should invest (buy a Note) only if you are willing to rely completely on the Company's management team.

Reliance On Management Team

Like almost all small businesses, the Company relies exclusively on the abilities of its management team. Should any of them die, leave the Company, or become ill for a long period of time, the Company would be damaged and might not repay your Note.

Limited Products And Services

Most small, local businesses sell only one or two products or services, making them vulnerable to changes in technology and/or customer preferences.

Supplier Risk

The Company relies on third-party suppliers for the materials used in the manufacture of its products. If any of these suppliers changes the pricing, distribution, terms of service, or relationship with the Company, this could materially affect its business and/or profitability. Factors outside of the Company's control, including general market conditions, may affect its relationship with these suppliers. In addition, its ability to meet the obligations of its customers may be adversely affected if its suppliers fail to comply with agreed-upon services or quality standards in a cost-effective or timely manner.

Risk of Economic Downturn

In the event of a recession or other economic downturn, customers might curtail their purchase of the Company's products.

Price Risk

The Company competes in an industry with a commodity product where the Company may not have control of the prices it will receive for its product or the prices it must pay for inputs. Price uncertainty may negatively impact the Company's business and financial situation.

Use of Funds Risk

At the discretion of the Company's executive management team, funds raised in this offering may be used differently than specifically outlined in this document's Use of Funds section.

Personnel Risk

The Company uses human personnel to produce its product. Accidents, illnesses, death, divorce, or lack of productivity could negatively impact the ability of personnel and, therefore, the business.

Lack Of Accounting Controls

Larger companies typically have in place strict accounting controls. Smaller companies like the Company lack these controls, exposing themselves to additional risk.

Reputation Risk

The success of the Company depends on the reputation of its brand. Adverse publicity concerning the Company's products or the Company itself could negatively impact the future of its business.

The Company Might Need More Capital

The Company might need to raise more capital in the future to expand its operations, buy property and equipment, hire drivers and other personnel, market its products and services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that are not adverse to your interests as an investor. If the Company is unable to obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations altogether.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If the Company needs more capital in the future, it might borrow money and/or sell stock, and the new investors might have rights superior to those of an investor owning a Note. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive larger distributions, to have a greater voice in management, or otherwise.

Inability To Sell Your Note

The law prohibits you from selling your Note (except in certain very limited circumstances) for one year after you acquire it. Even after that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. Even if you are permitted to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market. Given these factors, you should be prepared to hold your Note for its full term.

Limitation of Individual Rights in Event of Default

In the event of a default under the Notes, an individual investor will not have the right to enforce his, her or its rights – for example, by bringing a lawsuit. Instead, the investors will appoint a representative using a procedure set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement. It's possible that the investors as a group will appoint a representative you don't like, or that the representative will do things you believe are wrong or misguided. Once a default has occurred and a representative has been appointed, all the expenses of the representative must be paid before any further payments are made with respect to the Notes.

Lack of Key Man Insurance

Although dependent on key personnel, the Company does not have any key man life insurance policies on any such people. In the event that such personnel die or become disabled, the Company will not receive compensation to assist for their absence and the loss of such person could negatively affect the Company.

The Owners Could Be Bad People Or Do Bad Things

The owners of the Company could be dishonest and take your money. Even people who are very honest sometimes do dishonest things in desperate situations – for example, when their company is on the line, or they’re going through a divorce or other stressful life event. It is possible that the management of the Company, or an employee, would steal from or otherwise cheat the Company, and you.

Uninsured Losses

Although the Company will carry some insurance, we might not buy enough insurance to guard against all the risks of our business. Also, there are some kinds of risks that are simply impossible to insure against, at least at a reasonable cost. Therefore, we could incur an uninsured loss that could damage our business.

Conflict Of Interest

In many ways your interests and the interests of the Company’s management team will coincide: you all want the Company to be as successful as possible. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas, including these:

- You might want to keep the compensation of managers low, while managers want to make as much as they can.
- You might want the Company to act conservatively to conserve its cash, while the management team might want to grow more quickly.
- You might want the Company to look out for your interests, while the management time might subordinate your interests to the interests of employees, other investors, or others.
- The lawyers who prepared the legal documents represent the interests of the Company, not the interests of investors.

No Registration Under Securities Laws

The Notes will not be registered with the SEC or the securities regulator of any State. Hence, neither the Company nor the Notes are subject to the same degree of regulation and scrutiny as if they were registered.

Incomplete Offering Information

Title III does not require us to provide you with all the information that would be required in some other kinds of securities offerings, such as a public offering of shares (for example, publicly-traded firms must generally provide investors with quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm). Although Title III does require extensive information, as described above, it is possible that you would make a different decision if you had more information.

Lack Of Ongoing Information

The Company will be required to provide some information to investors for at least one year following the offering. However, this information is far more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting company; and the Company will be allowed to stop providing annual information in certain circumstances.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements Of National Securities Exchanges

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to a number of rules about corporate governance that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchanges require listed companies to have an audit committee made up entirely of independent members of the board of directors (i.e., directors with no material outside relationships with the company or management), which is responsible for monitoring the company’s compliance with the law. The Company will not be required to implement these and other investor protections.

Cost of Enforcement

If the Company defaulted, investors would have to engage lawyers and possibly other third parties to enforce their rights. The cost of enforcement could be prohibitive.

Advertiser Risk

The Company is in the business of selling advertising space. This is a volatile market. Preferences shift frequently and advertisers have many options. If an advertiser decides that, due to the nature of the content produced by the Company, the demographic makeup of the publication’s readership, or some other factor, that advertising with the Company would risk its business, the Company could lose business or gain a reputation as a publication with which it is not worth advertising.

Libel, Defamation, and Slander Risk

The Company will publish a newspaper. If it publishes inaccurate information that defames, injures, libels, or slanders another person, group of people, or company, it could get sued, and be liable for damages that are not covered by insurance. Even if the Company is not found liable, it might have to pay for a lawyer to defend it in this circumstance.

Media Landscape Risk

In 2018, many different forms of media compete with printed newspapers for reader attention. This includes social media, online publications, and other forms of electronic media. Many traditional newspapers have shut down or been forced to consolidate or lay off staff in this environment. The Company will be facing all of these factors in addition to any risk factors specific to starting a brand-new newspaper.

Unique Supply Chain Management Risk

The Company must engage a printing company, delivery persons, writers, graphic designers, editors, as well as businesses willing to host their racks and street boxes. If any of these participants find the content produced by the Company to be inaccurate, objectionable, or in any other way problematic, they might choose not to do business with the Company. This risk is unique to a journalism business, inasmuch as the product (reporting) might not be universally perceived as unobjectionable.

USE OF FUNDS

The purpose of this offering is to raise funds for racks, street boxes, and all of the costs associated with making sure that all of our readers in the Greater Pittsburgh area can read their own copy.

TRANSACTION MECHANICS

The following describes the process to invest Pittsburgh Current and how an investor's transaction and delivery of securities will be completed.

- a. Investor Commitment: Through the Honeycomb Portal, an investor will submit a requested investment amount. As a part of this process, an investor will execute an investment contract with the Pittsburgh Current ("Note Purchase Agreement") by way of the investor's electronic signature.
- b. Acceptance of Investment: Upon completion of the investment commitment, the investor will receive via email a confirmation of their transaction detailing the amount, terms, and date of execution.
- c. Investor Transfer of Funds: Upon receiving confirmation that an investment has been accepted, the investor will transfer funds to the escrow account of a third-party bank managed by Honeycomb Portal.
- d. Early Closings: If the target offering amount is met prior to the original deadline date, we may close the offering earlier, but no less than 21 days after the date on which the Form C is posted on the Honeycomb Portal.
- e. Book Entry: All investments will be in book entry form. This means that the Investor will not receive a certificate representing their investment. Each investment will be recorded by Honeycomb Portal and visible by the investor through their Investor Dashboard.

Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met.

If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

Note: For more information about the investment and cancellation process, see Honeycomb's Education Materials.

Details of Security Being Offered

The securities being offered to investors are promissory notes, which we refer to as "Notes."

This section summarizes the principal features of the Note Purchase Agreement. However, this is only a summary. Before investing, you should read the Note Purchase Agreement in its entirety.

- The principal amount of your Note will be the amount you invest.
- Your Note will accrue interest at a rate of 11.0% per year. The accrual of interest will begin after a two-month interim period following the closing date of the offering – that is, when the money paid by investors is released to the Company – not on the date you invest. The Company must pay the accrued interest on a quarterly basis (every three months), starting two months after the closing date of the offering.
- The Company must repay your principal (the amount you invested) 60 months from the end of the two-month interim period or, if sooner, the date that the Company is sold or otherwise experiences a "change of control." The Company may also prepay the Note. Any prepayments will first be applied to accrued interest, then to principal.
- All communications from the Company, including but not limited to all tax forms, will be via electronic delivery.
- All payments will be made in U.S. dollars as Automated Clearing House (ACH) deposits into an account you designate. If you don't authorize the Company to make such ACH distributions into a designated account, payments will be made by check and mailed to you after deducting a $50 processing fee.
- Once you pay for your Note, you will have no obligation to contribute more money to the Company, and you will not be personally obligated for any debts of the Company.
- If there is a default under your Note, you may not take collection action personally. Instead, you and the other investors will together appoint a single representative to represent all of you. The representative will have the power to take any action against the company that he or she believes is appropriate. The fees and any expenses of the representative will be the responsibility of the Company, but the representative will be paid before any additional amounts are paid to you or other investors.
- If you want to sell your Note, you must first offer to sell it back to the company – a so-called "first right of refusal." If the Company doesn't buy it, the Company may impose restrictions on the transfer. For example, the Company may require a legal opinion that the transfer is allowed under the securities laws.

- The Note offered does not have any voting rights.
- The Terms of the Note being offered may not be modified or amended.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Being Offered

The Note will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell it) for four reasons:

- The Note Purchase Agreement prohibits the sale or other transfer of Notes without the Company's consent.
- If you want to sell your Note, the Company will have the first right of refusal to buy it, which could make it harder to find a buyer.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for Notes as there would be for a publicly-traded company.
- For a period of one year, you will not be allowed to transfer the Note except (i) to the Company itself, (ii) to an "accredited" investor, (iii) to a family or trust, or (iv) in a public offering of the Company's shares.

As a result, you should plan to hold your Note until maturity.

ADDITIONAL MATTERS RELATED TO THE SECURITY

1. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

The Company does not have the right to change the terms of the promissory notes or the Note Purchase Agreement. However, it does have the right to create additional classes of securities, both equity securities and debt securities. Some of these additional classes of securities could have rights that are superior to those of the promissory notes. For example, the Company could issue promissory notes that are secured by specific property of the Company.

2. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

The owners of the promissory notes will not have the right to share in the profits of the company or participate in the management of the company.

3. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

The principal shareholders could make decisions that are bad for the company and thereby adversely affect the economic interests of investors holding promissory notes. They could also issue other classes of securities with rights superior to those of investors holding promissory notes.

4. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.
The value of the Notes is determined by the face amount of the note payable to be issued. The terms of the Notes were determined by the Owner based on the Owner's opinion about the value of the project.

The Owner does not expect there to be any reason to place a value on the Notes in the future. In the event that future valuation is required, any value given the notes by the company will be determined in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

5. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?
n/a

6. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions, including additional issuances of securities, issuer repurchases of securities, a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or transactions with related parties?

The company could issue securities with rights superior to those of the promissory notes.

If the company is sold, the owners of the promissory notes have the right to receive all of the principal and accrued interest.

Transactions with related parties – for example, the payment of excessive compensation – could reduce the amount of money available to make payments with respect to the promissory notes.

7. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?
None.

8. The issuer or any entities controlled by or under the common control with the issuer was not a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12-month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

1. any director or officer of the issuer;
2. any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power;
3. if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer;

4. or (4) any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons.

This statement is true.

Whenever any payment is due on a day that is not a business day, such payment will be due on the next following business day. Each payment will be applied first to any fees charges and expenses authorized under the Loan Documents, including the reasonable fees and expenses of the Administrative Agent, then to accrued but unpaid interest on the Notes, and then to the outstanding principal balances of the Notes.

To the extent a Holder does not authorize the Issuer to make ACH distributions into its Designated Account, payments to such Holder will be made by check and mailed to such Holder at the address provided by Holder on the Site after deduction by the Issuer from each such check of a Fifty Dollar ($50) processing fee (the “Processing Fee”). Equalization Among Holders. Each Note is on parity with all Notes issued pursuant to this Agreement and rank equally, without preference among themselves. Any amounts to be distributed pursuant to this Agreement and the Notes to the Holders shall be made pro rata in proportion to the amount then outstanding under each Holder’s respective Note.

Maximum Lawful Rate. In no event shall Issuer be obligated to pay interest on the Note to the extent it exceeds the highest rate of interest that may be lawfully contracted for, charged or received by such Holder, and in such event the Issuer shall pay such Holder interest at the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

No Right to Cancel. Each Holder acknowledges and agrees that this is a commercial transaction and that the Holder has no right to cancel its subscription or rescind this Agreement. Appointment. Each Holder hereby irrevocably designates, appoints and authorizes MAZURKRAEMER BUSINESS LAW, to act as Administrative Agent for such Holder under this Agreement and to execute and deliver or accept on behalf of each of the Holder any Loan Documents, including this Agreement, and any security agreement or mortgage or other document or instrument reasonably necessary to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Disclosure Document. Each Holder hereby irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the Loan Documents, and to exercise such powers and to perform such duties hereunder as are specifically delegated to or required of the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. Administrative Agent agrees to act as the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Holders to the extent provided in this Agreement.

Nature of Duties.

The Administrative Agent shall have no duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this Agreement and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or otherwise exist. The duties of the Administrative Agent shall be mechanical and administrative in nature and shall not create any fiduciary or trust relationship in respect of any Holder.

The function and duty of the Administrative Agent shall be: (i) to execute any security agreement, mortgage or other Loan Document on behalf of the Holders providing for the grant of a security interest in favor of the Holders in property of the Issuer as contemplated in the Disclosure Document and in this Agreement; (ii) to enforce the rights and remedies of the Holders under any applicable Loan Document, including this Agreement, upon written direction from the Required Holders (as defined below) (an “Enforcement Proceeding”); and (iii) to hold proceeds collected by Administrative Agent following an Event of Default by the Issuer, including, but not limited to, from the sale of any Collateral, and to distribute such proceeds to the Holders in an amount consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Holder’s respective Note.

In connection with any Enforcement Proceeding, the Administrative Agent shall have the power, on behalf of each Holder, to pursue such remedies as may be available by law and pursuant to this Agreement, for the purpose of maximizing the return to the Holders as a group, and to settle the claims of each Holder on such terms as the Administrative Agent may determine in its sole and unlimited discretion, subject to the other provisions of this Agreement. The Administrative Agent may pursue such remedies notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent does not have physical possession of the Notes and without naming the Holders as parties.

The Administrative Agent takes no responsibility and makes no statement regarding the validity, extent or enforceability of the Loan Documents or the lien priority or position that the Holders will have as a result of the Loan Documents.

Instructions from the Holders. The Administrative Agent agrees, upon the written request of the Holders holding at least a majority of the then outstanding amount of the obligations evidenced by the Notes on an aggregate basis (the “Required Holders”), to take or refrain from taking any action of the type specified as being within the Administrative Agent’s rights, powers or discretion herein, provided that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action which exposes the Administrative Agent to personal liability or which is contrary to this Agreement, any loan agreements with third parties (if applicable), or any of the other Loan Documents or applicable Law. Additionally, Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to comply with instructions from the Required Holders to initiate or continue an Enforcement Proceeding without sufficient funds being made available in advance to Administrative Agent to cover the Administrative Agent's out-pocket-expenses, including, but not limited to, filing fees and costs, required to initiate or continue such Enforcement Proceeding. Any action taken or failure to act pursuant to such instructions shall be binding on the Holders. No Holder shall have any right of action whatsoever against the Administrative Agent as a result of the Administrative Agent acting or refraining from acting hereunder in accordance with the instructions of the Required Holders, or in the absence of such instructions, in the absolute discretion of the Administrative Agent. Holders acknowledge and agree to electronic communications by and between the Holders and the Administrative Agent and any Holder's failure to affirmatively instruct the Administrative Agent within the time prescribed by Administrative Agent shall be deemed as the Holder's consent to the action or inaction taken by the Administrative Agent.

Nonrecourse Liability. The Administrative Agent shall not be liable to any Holder for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it or them hereunder, or in connection herewith including pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, unless caused by Administrative Agent's own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Reimbursement and Indemnification of Administrative Agent by Issuer. Issuer agrees to reimburse, indemnify defend and save the Administrative Agent harmless from and against all liabilities, costs, expenses or disbursements, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent, in its capacity as such, in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that Issuer shall not be liable for any portion of such liabilities, costs, expenses or disbursements if the same results from the Administrative Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Compensation. Administrative Agent shall be entitled to compensation and reimbursement of expenses as set forth below which amounts shall be the obligation of the Company and shall be added to the amounts otherwise payable under the Notes:

Flat Fee. As compensation to the Administrative Agent for the services provided by the Administrative Agent to the Holders in the execution and documentation of any Collateral securing the obligations evidenced by the Notes, Holders acknowledge and agree that Administrative Agent shall be paid a flat fee in accordance with the Schedule 5.6(a) attached hereto and incorporated herein.

Hourly Rate. As compensation to the Administrative Agent for the services provided by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Enforcement Proceeding, Administrative Agent shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation at the hourly rate(s) set forth in Schedule 5.6(b) attached hereto and incorporated herein, plus reimbursement of all out of pocket expenses reasonable incurred by the Administrative Agent.

Surcharge. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default that is continuing, all payments under the Notes shall be directed to and held in escrow until the Event of Default is cured or otherwise resolved. Each Holder acknowledges and agrees that the Administrative Agent may surcharge (i) the Collateral, if any, and (ii) the funds maintained in escrow in an amount equal to the outstanding and unpaid portion of the compensation due and payable to the Administrative Agent under the terms of this Agreement, prior to causing the balance of said proceeds or funds to be distributed to the Holders on a pro rata basis.

Successor Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent (i) may resign as Administrative Agent or (ii) shall resign if such resignation is requested by the Required Holders, by giving not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Holders and the Issuer. If the Administrative Agent resigns under this Agreement, then either (a) the Required Holders shall appoint from among the Holders a successor agent for the Holders, subject to the consent of the Issuer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned or (b) if a successor agent shall not be so appointed and approved within the thirty (30) day period following the Administrative Agent's notice of its resignation, then the Administrative Agent shall appoint, with the consent of the Issuer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned, a successor agent who shall serve as Administrative Agent until such time as the Required Holders appoint and the Issuer consents to the appointment of a successor agent, provided that the consent of the Issuer shall not be required if any event of default then exists. For purposes of this Section 5.7, only, the Required Holders shall be determined by reference to Holders holding at least a majority of the then outstanding amount of the obligations evidenced by the Notes on an aggregate basis that have cast a vote. Upon its appointment pursuant to either clause (a) or (b) above, such successor agent shall succeed to the rights, powers and duties of the Administrative Agent, and the term "Administrative Agent" shall mean such successor agent, effective upon its appointment, and the former Administrative Agent's rights, powers and duties as Administrative Agent shall be terminated without any other or further act or deed on the part of such former Administrative Agent or any of the parties to this Agreement. After the resignation of any Administrative Agent hereunder, the provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of such former Administrative Agent and such former Administrative Agent shall not by reason of such resignation be deemed to be released from liability for any actions taken or not taken by it while it was an Administrative Agent under this Agreement.

Calculations. In the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct, Holder acknowledges and agrees that there will be no liability for any error in computing the amount payable to any Holder whether in respect of the Notes, fees or any other amounts due to the Holder under this Agreement. In the event an error in computing any amount payable to any Holder is made, the Administrative Agent, the Issuer and each affected Holder shall, forthwith upon discovery of such error, make such adjustments as shall be required to correct such error.

For these purposes, the term “Change of Control” means (i) the sale or other disposition of all or any substantial portion of the assets or equity securities of the Issuer; (ii) a change in more than fifty percent (50%) of the effective voting power of the Issuer; or (iii) any merger or reorganization of the Issuer, except a merger in which those in control of the Issuer retain more than fifty percent (50%) of the combined voting power of the resulting entity; or Bankruptcy. Issuer files a voluntary bankruptcy proceeding.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default in Section 6.1(a)-(f), then the Required Holders may instruct the Administrative Agent to declare all amounts owed under the Notes to be immediately due and payable. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default in Section 6.1(g), all amounts owed under the Notes shall automatically be accelerated and become immediately due and payable without prior written notice or demand. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default that is continuing, Holders shall have the right to exercise all rights and remedies available to them under this Agreement, any Loan Document, at law or in equity, consistent with the procedures set forth in this Agreement.

NO CLASS ACTION CLAIMS. NO LAWSUIT SHALL PROCEED ON A CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE, OR COLLECTIVE BASIS. No party may join, consolidate, or otherwise bring claims for or on behalf of two or more individuals or unrelated corporate entities in the same lawsuit unless those persons are parties to a single transaction. An award shall determine the rights and obligations of the named parties only, and only with respect to the claims in the lawsuit, and shall not

(i) determine the rights, obligations, or interests of anyone other than a named party, or resolve any claim of anyone other than a named party, or (ii) make an award for the benefit of, or against, anyone other than a named party. No administrator or arbitrator shall have the power or authority to waive, modify, or fail to enforce this paragraph, and any attempt to do so, whether by rule, policy, arbitration decision or otherwise, shall be invalid and unenforceable. Any challenge to the validity of this paragraph shall be determined exclusively by a court and not by the administrator or any arbitrator. If this paragraph shall be deemed unenforceable, then any proceeding in the nature of a class action shall be handled in court, not in arbitration

The Holders acknowledge that this is a commercial transaction, that the foregoing provisions for consent to jurisdiction, service of process and waiver of jury trial have been read, understood and voluntarily agreed to by them and that by agreeing to such provisions they are waiving important legal rights. The obligations of the parties under this Section will survive any termination of this Agreement.

Expenses. Each party shall be responsible for its own expenses, including without limitation all attorney's fees which arise out of or relate to the documentation of this Agreement or the Notes.
